Marriages of Grace is a 501c3 non-profit organization that was founded in 2012 with the purpose of enriching and strengthening Catholic couples. An annual Marriage Enrichment Day is the primary means of reaching this goal. Events sponsored by Marriages of Grace feature talks given by Catholic couples and religious who are knowledgeable on particular topics. Some of these include Theology of the Body, the Five Love Languages, the Temperaments, and raising children Catholic. Many of these couples have also been trained in the Prepare and Enrich program through the Department for Marriage and Family Ministry. Since 2008, Marriages of Grace has been blessed in helping many married couples live out their sacramental union.
